The concept of "Bible marking" has been around for a long time. The process is to follow a trail of texts marked through your Bible on a particular subject. This is an easy way to self-study or give a one-on-one Bible study to someone else without having to commit the texts to memory or awkwardly reference texts from another an outside source. Scripture Map Power Pack uses this concept but takes it to the next level. It includes additional text for deeper study if desired but can be used for a shorter study as well. Also traditional Bible marking involves handwriting the information into your Bible. This is time consuming and can become messy. Printing your Maps on stickers is a neat and quick way to "mark" your Bible.

ENLARGED BIBLE LABEL

Directions

(1) DOWNLOAD PDF = Click on the link to download the PDF masters to your computer. There are 2 options of label sets available; either single person use or small groups.

(2) OBTAIN STICKERS = You may obtain labels to print your Scripture Maps on at any office supply store. The label options that will match the layout of the PDF's are label size 0.5" x 1.75" inch Avery 8167 or Office Depot Item: 612-191. Or if you have access to any other labels you may print on these and cut out each label with scissors.

(3) PRINT = Print a test page then overlay it with a sheet of your labels and hold up to the light to see if they match. Place your label with the labels in the correct orientation based on your specific printer (usually face down in the printer). Print your labels choosing the highest resolution that your printer is capable of printing. When in your print menu be sure to select

(4) INDEX = Pick a page either in the front or back of your Bible to use as your Scripture Map Power Pack index. Each time you map a new subject write the name of the subject in a list and write the first reference text beside it. Now go to the page of your Bible where this text is located and place the first sticker on an empty spot at the top or bottom of the page. Now proceed to the "To" reference text located on the bottom right of the first sticker. Locate the page in your Bible containing this text and place label number two and proceed with this process until you have mapped the entire set of stickers on that subject.

(5) SELF STUDY = Now you have a great way to study your Bible on life-changing topics of God's Word! Before you ever open God's Word always pause to pray for His Spirit to be your teacher and help you understand what you are about to study. If time is limited you can choose to just follow your Scripture Map referencing only the current and primary reference texts located at the top by the subject. If you desire to dig deeper into God's Word for a greater blessing and understanding you can also look up the extra texts listed. Be sure and put a marker at the location of the primary text so when you have finished looking up the extra reference texts you can find your way back to know where to proceed to the next primary text. Now proceed to the "To" text located on the bottom right of the sticker. Proceed in this manner until you have completed your study.

(6) STUDY WITH OTHERS = You are now ready to share the blessing with others! You don't have to be a Biblical scholar to share God's Word with others. Use your Scripture Maps to share the wonderful Bible truths you are learning with others! Use the information and knowledge you have and God will increase your ability. Just be humble and honest that you don't know all the answers but together you can study and have faith that God will reveal it to you. If you are not able to draw a conclusion then tell your study partner that on your next visit you will try your best to return with a Biblical answer.

Consider printing a set of Scripture Maps and helping the person you are studying with Scripture Map their Bibles as you study with them. This gives them the tools and confidence to go home and review the study themselves and to do the same with others. This concept can be used in small groups as well.

May God bless you as you seek to know and apply the truths of God's Word in your life!
