

As a forced participant in an irreconcilable controversy between good and evil do you ever question: How did this great battle begin? How long will it continue? How will it end? What will prevent my deception and destruction? Take courage! God, who created in you the longing for a better existence and the desire for truth, has not withheld this life-giving knowledge from you. You are invited on an incredible journey through the Bible to gain an understanding of critical last day events that will decide your eternal destiny.

*"Come to me,
 all you who are
 troubled and
 weighted down
 with care, and I
 will give you rest."*
